Project Sampoorna - WCD Safe & Inclusive School Initiatives activities in schools

Building Safe School Cultures & Holistic development in Social Welfare Residential Schools

Project Sampoorna and school-level actors have been trying to create a school environment focused on children's holistic development in which disruptions are minimized, students feel heard, and where students are encouraged to be collaborative, empathic, and kind to one another.

In an effort to cultivate a safe, inclusive and encouraging school environment, Project Sampoorna has been supporting in implementing various monthly school-wide activities to achieve a greater goal. Activities focusing on alleviating body shaming across schools among students was a key activity in the months of January - February. Along with circle time topics and various cooperative games also focused on building cooperation, collaboration, kindness and the very ethos that we can only succeed together.

Integration of Social Emotional Learning (SEL) in these classrooms across 37 schools through SEL focused lesson plans focus not only on integrating SEL to create a supportive and inclusive classroom environment in which students feel valued, respected, and safe to express themselves, fostering a positive learning environment, but also on how teachers actually teach and engage students in academic aspects for classes V to VIII. Few of the competencies that are being focused on self esteem, perseverance, critical thinking, collaboration and empathy.

Recognizing Excellence

In a heartwarming ceremony that radiated pride and celebration, Dr. E. Naveen Nicolas, IAS., the Secretary, TSWREIS honored exceptional students of TSWREIS Centers of Excellence (CoEs) who achieved the remarkable feat of securing admissions into prestigious IITs, IIITs & NITs. The event marked not only their academic triumph but also the commitment of TSWREIS to nurturing talent and providing opportunities for growth. The Secretary, beaming with pride, bestowed cash incentives and state-of-the-art laptops to them. This initiative not only acknowledges their academic prowess but also serves as a powerful motivator for aspiring scholars within the TSWREIS community.

The distribution of cash incentives is a tangible recognition of the students' dedication, and the laptops provided aim to equip them with the necessary tools to excel in their academic pursuits. These devices represent more than just technology; they symbolize access to knowledge, connectivity, and the digital resources that will empower these students to excel in their chosen fields.

The students, visibly elated and grateful for the recognition, expressed their appreciation for the support and opportunities provided by TSWREIS. Their success stories serve as beacons of inspiration for their peers, encouraging them to strive for excellence and dream big.

Workshop on the Mental Well-being of Students for teachers and Principals

This 2 days program organized by the Public Health Foundation of India provided insights into identifying and understanding behavioral issues among students. Speakers shared strategies for supporting students' mental health at the institutional level. Participants learned to create a supportive environment using Power Point presentations, energizers, activities, and techniques transferable to their institutions. Principals were instructed to follow specific steps such as forming a School Counselling Committee (SCC) with the Principal, Vice-principal, 3 teachers and 3 students, conducting a workshop at the regional level and school level after the training, maintaining a register with class-wise student details divided into four zones, listing a minimum of 5 problems and discussing action plans to resolve issues, providing general counseling for students with identified problems and holding a weekly review meeting every Wednesday to assess progress and update the register.

The training sessions at the institutions level are recommended to be conducted in June, October, and January to enhance mental resilience, physical health, and academic performance. The aim is to empower students and staff to face life challenges, utilize their potential effectively, and foster a happy and healthy institutional environment. The success of this program is anticipated to positively impact students' mental well-being, strengthen coping mechanisms, and prevent adverse decisions.

Empowering Education: Chief Minister distributes appointment orders to the newly recruited teachers in residential institutions

In a momentous occasion that marked a significant stride towards enhancing the educational landscape, the hon'ble Chief Minister of Telangana, Sri Anumula Revanth Reddy, took center stage to distribute appointment orders to a cohort of newly recruited teachers destined for residential institutions. This event not only symbolized the government's commitment to bolstering the education sector but also underscored the pivotal role these educators will play in shaping the future of countless students.

The ceremony, held with due pomp and circumstance, showcased the government's dedication to providing quality education in residential institutions. The Chief Minister, adorned with the responsibility of fostering academic excellence, personally handed over the appointment letters to the enthusiastic teachers, echoing a strong message of support for their crucial role in moulding young minds. The newly appointed teachers induction into residential institutions signifies a strategic move towards creating an environment conducive to holistic learning, where not only academic knowledge but also life skills are imparted.

Addressing the gathering, the Chief Minister emphasized the government's vision for transforming these residential institutions into centers of educational excellence. The distribution of appointment orders was not merely an administrative formality but a symbolic gesture of entrusting the future of the younger generation to capable hands. This initiative aligns with the government's broader strategy to elevate the standard of education, particularly in residential institutions that cater to students from various backgrounds. The Chief Minister reiterated the importance of investing in quality education as a means to empower individuals and uplift communities.
